DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claim 1 is objected to because of the following informalities: in line 1, the word "analyzing" is misspelled. Appropriate correction is required.
2. Claim 1 is objected to because of the following informalities: in lines 1-3, "in which method a large number..." is awkwardly worded. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 1, 3, 4 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

5. The term "large number" in claim 1 is a relative term which renders the claim indefinite. The term "large number" is not defined by the claim, the specification does not provide a standard for ascertaining the requisite degree, and one of ordinary skill in the art would not be reasonably apprised of the scope of the invention.

6. The terms "good/poor process situation" in claims 1, 3, 4 and 5 is a relative term which renders the claim indefinite. The terms "good/poor process situation" is not defined by the claim, the specification does not provide a standard for ascertaining the requisite degree, and one of ordinary skill in the art would not be reasonably apprised of the scope of the invention.

Art Unit: 2125

7. The term "substantially narrower" in claim 3 is a relative term which renders the claim indefinite. The term "substantially narrower" is not defined by the claim, the specification does not provide a standard for ascertaining the requisite degree, and one of ordinary skill in the art would not be reasonably apprised of the scope of the invention.

Allowable Subject Matter

8. Claims 2 and 6 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
